The journey of love requires a dedicated willingness to accept what is present, to release what no longer serves us, and to open to the grace that surrounds us. Love delights, love awakens, love heals.

Searching endlessly to fulfill needs through material possessions, status, addictions, or accomplishments can never bring a lasting joy. Disappointments, heartbreaks, and suffering can crush us or lead us deeper within our own being. Feeling disillusioned can be the beginning of exploring a deeper path of fulfillment. Relinquishing bitterness, anger, and judgement allows for an openness within the body, heart, and mind.

---

Acceptance, courage, and forgiveness are essential companions on the path of awakening to love. Fulfillment requires a willingness to receive and to open beyond one's small self to one's higher self, in alignment with the Divine. Love beckons and calls to us. What could transform your life more, than to heed the call of love?
